DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, requires the specification to be written in "full, clear, concise, and exact terms." The specification is replete with terms which are not clear, concise and exact and appears to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors. The specification should be revised carefully in order to comply with 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. Examples of some unclear, inexact or verbose terms used in the specification are: "a bike handle tightening device after separated from a bike frame", "to result in dropping of paints or disfiguring to cause a disqualified bike", "the handle may be fall down on the ground or pull along", etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1-4 contain grammatically incorrect English. Applicant should carefully review the claims to correct grammatical and idiomatic errors. Some examples include: "A bike handle tightening device after separated from a bike frame", "a handle inserting in a front fork tube", "a threaded rod inserting in said vertical rod", etc.

In claim 1 line 3 it is unclear what a "proper position" is.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-4 (as understood) would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The cited references disclose folding bicycles.
